Motion

In accordance with Local Rule 16-3, Plaintiff respectfully requests a 7-day extension of time to file its Response to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss. Plaintiff's Response is currently due on January 31, 2023¹, 14 days after Defendants filed their Motion to Dismiss on January 17, 2023. With a 7-day extension of time, Plaintiff's Response deadline would be extended to February 7, 2023. Plaintiff hereby certifies that counsel for all parties have conferred pursuant to LR 7-1, and Defendants indicated they do not oppose Plaintiff's extension of time.

Memorandum in Support of Motion

Plaintiff requests an extension for its Response to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss given that both attorneys for Plaintiff, Tom Buchele and Austin Starnes, tested positive for and presented symptoms of COVID-19 on or about January 22-24, 2023. Both attorneys are now starting to recover and are diligently working on Plaintiff's Response, but require more time to finalize and file said Response, given that both attorneys were sick for almost a full week. Therefore, Plaintiff seeks a 7-day extension to file its Response on February 7, 2023. This extension will impact the timeline for Defendants' Reply to Plaintiff's Response, which would now be due 14 days after Plaintiff's Response is filed, on February 21, 2023, pursuant to LR 7-1(e)(2).

For good cause, Plaintiff requests that the Court grant its motion and order that Plaintiff has until February 7, 2023 to respond to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss.
